

Student Nature Journaling Class

June 26th

10:30am-11:30am

@ East Ridge
Library

Learn how to look closely at what's in your own backyard!

Find 'sit spots' to observe plants and creatures often overlooked outside.

No skills required -- a chance to draw and discuss our findings together as a group.

Colored pencils, paper, and plants to observe will be provided.

Receive a packet to help you start your own nature journal wherever you go!

Class size is a max of 10 for 4th -12th graders. Call 423-867-7323 for reservations.
